Pier (PEE-air)
Giorgio (GEORGE-o)
Frassati (Fra-SAH-tee)

EXCERPTS FROM LA CARITÀ,

EDITED BY LUCIANA FRASSATI

Not all [of Pier Giorgio's] friends and companions treated him as his goodness deserved. Rather, for the most part their behavior towards him was what his goodness justified: so jokes, pricks, teases and not always superficial or overly kind. But he never got angry; he was accustomed to joking and responding blow for blow even if with much less tendentiousness and satisfaction, [for] he always knew how to find the favorable side of the joke, to respond politely and without bitterness. And then Father Borla saw him coming in front of him with his open and sincere smile; he heard him offer him as a friendly greeting, "Listen, Father Borla, let us go torment Bertini!" All of this was his mischievousness, a true charity for whoever who knew him.

Frassati Challenge: Practice good self-deprecating humor. Joke about one of your shortcomings with another person.

The Parishioner Assistance Ministry is here to help fellow parishioners in need! Please contact Mary Ellen Stadelmann at mes_6555@yahoo.com if you or someone you know needs help.

Friends of Frassati is all our "non-liturgical" parish ministries that are social or outreach oriented. FRASSATI SPOTLIGHT— WHAT IS OUR MISSION?

Our Mission at Frassati Catholic Church is "Preparing disciples for the good adventure." What does this mean? We recognize that everyone is at different stages of their climb—verso l'alto—towards the heights — towards heaven. Some are discerning the costs of beginning it for them and those they love. Others have stopped, fallen, or become sidetracked, due to noise, apathy, or wounds. Still others are actively engaged in the climb of their life. Finally, some have made it "to the top" and now are interceding and helping us. Regardless, we seek as a family to meet each person where they are at and help them climb that next phase of the mountain of the Lord with the tools that our Catholic faith has developed over two millennia. Moreover, we strive to do it "Frassati style," i.e., in and with the spirit of our patron, whom was dubbed "the Man of the Beatitudes." Pier Giorgio didn't view the Beatitudes (and our Catholic faith) as just some private or passive blessing to be received, but as a call to get up, go out, live, and diffuse far and wide what has been received from God. As he once wrote, "Jesus comes to me every morning in Holy Communion and I repay him in my very miserable way by visiting His poor." The Spanish word for "beatitude" (bienaventuranza) beautifully captures this call to action. It's a compound word (bien + aventura) that literally means "good adventure". This speaks to the nature of the journey we are on together and our desire to be the family of the beatitudes — the family of "good adventures." We seek to rise and embark daily, with the hope that those we help and serve along the way will in time step up and help others do the same with the love of Jesus.

DISCIPLESHIP & FAITH FORMATION 05

Pier Giorgio Frassati Catholic Church | Myrtle Beach, SC

Millennial Adult - Team Trivia Night (for ages 25 - 45)

Socialize, snack, and share your trivia knowledge with other Millennial age parishioners at the next Team Trivia Night at Seton School, Thursday, November 9th from 7 pm to 9 pm.

Please RSVP by Monday, November 6th to Angela at aswiftca@aol.com with Trivia Night as the subject.

Family Discipleship. We do Faith Formation differently at Frassati Catholic Church. We aim to help you respond to the call to be a disciple of Jesus, and we want to help families become disciples. So consider joining us on Sunday mornings at 9:15 a.m. for Family Discipleship. Please contact Jeff Vehige for more information: jvehige@charlestondiocese.org.

Discipleship Challenge: This Advent Season, prepare for the birth of Christ by engaging in liturgical living. Google "Catholic Advent Traditions" and find an activity that works for your family. For private devotion, starting on December 1, read and ponder one chapter of the Gospel of Luke. Luke is 24 chapters, so you'll finish on Christmas Eve.

"I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly," Jesus tells us in John 10:10. How abundantly are you living? Are your days overwhelmed by tasks or by love? Life's joy and meaning come from love rather than a full schedule. It's never too late to accept the abundant life that Jesus offers. Each day, He invites you to take a step toward Him. How will you respond today?

Frassati's CREW Youth Group: Registration for Youth Group is now open for all middle school and high school teens. Registration is free and online. Scan the QR code or visit our website to register. Contact Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org with any questions.

Youth Ministry Core Team: Has the Lord been calling you to work with the youth of our parish? If so, consider applying to be a member of our Core Team for middle and high school youth group. We are currently interviewing for at least 1 male and 1 female over the age of 21. For more information on scheduling an interview, please contact Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org.

We tithe as a Parish!

This means we give 10% of our weekly offertory away. We "pay it forward" to sacrifice and inspire those who have not taken that personal step in their journey of faith. It also simplifies our liturgies by avoiding weekly second collections. Half of our weekly tithe is used for Friends of Frassati and half goes to Diocesan or Parish chosen causes. For our FAQs about tithing and to learn how to recommend a recipient go to the "Giving" tab at www.FrassatiChurch.org or contact Sally Markus at smarkus@CharlestonDiocese.org.

Lighthouse of destiny is a ministry to and the future home of an unwed mothers outreach. Our gift will enable them to: provide transportation to/from prenatal appointments; partner with an "underground railroad" to assist with housing for rescued, trafficked, pregnant women; provide onsite Christian counseling, mentoring and coaching; fill and distribute diaper bags filled with newborn essentials that a new or expectant mother may be struggling to purchase; and assist with job training, high school graduation or GED.

The Salvation Army, an international movement, is an evangelical part of the Christian Church. Its message is based on the Bible and its ministry is motivated by the love of God.
