A Walk though the Mass - Presented by Jeff Vehige on January 15th, 22nd & 29th from 6:40 pm to 7:40 pm at Seton School. While you don't need to register to attend the presentation, if you'd like to join us for dinner beforehand at 6 pm, please sign up with Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org.

The Mass is the center of our Faith. We celebrate it every day. We know all the responses. We know all the gestures. But do we know what it all means?

Often, we go through the motions at Mass without an appreciation for what happens. In this three-week class we'll move beyond the repetition and ritual to see the Mass for what it really is: a heavenly banquet, a wedding feast, in which heaven and earth meet.

2023 Tax Statements - With the change to the IRS tax code, many people will no longer be able to itemize charitable contributions for tax purposes. 2023 Year End Contribution Statements will only be sent to those who made a one-time donation of $250 or more (per IRS regulations) or have made cumulative contributions for the year totaling $5,000 or more. If you do not fit this criteria and still require a tax statement for 2023, please request via email to FrassatiCC@gmail.com. Thank you all for your generous support of the parish.

EXCERPTS FROM LA CARITÀ,

EDITED BY LUCIANA FRASSATI

It was a weekday, a little before noon and Matilde Eiche, our housekeeper, having heard the ring, opened the door to a poor man. She left him just outside yet ran into the kitchen to look for something to give him; but when she returned offering something to eat she heard the man reply: "Thank you, miss, but I don't come to beg for a piece of bread. I would like to speak to Mr. Frassati to get a job." At that moment, Matilde Eiche, taken with compassion for the stranger, didn't really know how to respond, and after a bit of hesitation she let him sit in the lobby. Pier Giorgio, as a child, returned home from school shortly afterwards and immediately asked: "Matilde, what does that man who is in the entrance want?" "He wants to talk to your dad, he doesn't have a job," was the reply. He looked sadly at the poor man from the crack of the door, then returned to the maid's work room and said: "You know, Matilde, my dad is good, dad will give him work." As soon as she recognized our father's typical ringing, that time Matilde quickly ran to open the door and Pier Giorgio followed her waiting for what would happen. Quickly the maid explained to the father that a man wanted to talk to him. But then, suddenly the storm broke out: the father, irritated, opened the door of the house and sent the man away very forcefully, almost yelling at him that he could go to La Stampa [his newspaper] but not come to pester him with business matters at home. Pier Giorgio, who had heard and seen everything, burst into tears and said: "Daddy is wicked." And our father, who could not see him cry for such a reason and who had heard him cry: "Perhaps Jesus has passed by and we have chased him away" gave him a lira to give to the poor man. Pier Giorgio flew after the man to bring him the coin, and when he returned home his face was radiant even if it was still wet with tears, which finished drying when, at the table, dad assured him that he would ask for information and get the stranger a job.

FRASSATI SPOTLIGHT— TEEN LEADERSHIP

We are delighted to cast a spotlight on the dedication and leadership demonstrated by our group of teens. Their commitment to community has shone over the past few months. Starting with VBS, our teen leaders provided guidance to our younger children with joy, enthusiasm, and mentorship. Their efforts helped make VBS a positive experience for all participants. Additionally, during Oktoberfest, our teens helped lead children's games and face painting. Beyond these events, these teens have continually exhibited their commitment through altar serving, active participation in youth group, and assisting with Friends of Frassati. Their dedication and passion are the driving force behind the bright and promising future of our church, and for this, we extend our heartfelt gratitude.

DISCIPLESHIP & FAITH FORMATION 05

Pier Giorgio Frassati Catholic Church | Myrtle Beach, SC

We do Faith Formation differently at Frassati Catholic Church. Our goal is to help you respond to the call to be a disciple of Jesus - someone who surrenders to Christ and seeks to live his or her life imitating Him.

Family Discipleship. Consider joining us on Sunday mornings at 9:15 am for Family Discipleship. Please check the online calendar or contact Jeff Vehige for more information: JVehige@charlestondiocese.org.

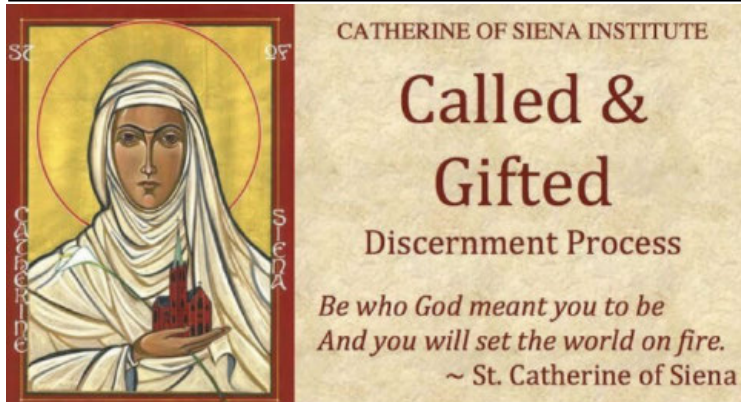

Discipleship Challenge: The New Year is upon us. To see changes, you have to make changes. If there's a relationship that you want to improve or a habit you want to develop, lamenting the current situation can help identify the need for change, but without action, the current situation will remain. If spring cleaning seems daunting, start by organizing one drawer. If someone close to you has made poor decisions, start by saying, "I've noticed that...". If exercise is a struggle, start with a short walk in the warm sunshine. And if you feel disconnected from God, start by lifting your heart to Him.

In fact, this year, challenge yourself to take up one — and only one — spiritual practice you can do every single day without fail. It might be saying an Our Father and Hail Mary when you wake up. It might be praying a decade of the Rosary. It might be reading one chapter from the Bible. But promise the Lord you will do something to know him better and love him more.

Frassati's CREW Youth Group: Registration for Youth Group is now open for all middle school and high school teens. Registration is free and online. Scan the QR code or visit our website to register. Contact Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org with any questions.

Youth Ministry Core Team: Has the Lord been calling you to work with the youth of our parish? If so, consider applying to be a member of our Core Team for middle and high school youth group. We are currently interviewing for at least 1 male and 1 female over the age of 21. For more information on scheduling an interview, please contact Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org.

We tithe as a Parish!

This means we give 10% of our weekly offertory away. We "pay it forward" to sacrifice and inspire those who have not taken that personal step in their journey of faith. It also simplifies our liturgies by avoiding weekly second collections. Half of our weekly tithe is used for Friends of Frassati and half goes to Diocesan or Parish chosen causes. For our FAQs about tithing and to learn how to recommend a recipient go to the "Giving" tab at www.FrassatiChurch.org or contact Sally Markus at SMarkus@CharlestonDiocese.org.

Tithe for January 7, 2024 - Samaritan's Purse SamaritansPurse.org

Samaritan's Purse helps meet the needs of people who are victims of war, poverty, natural disasters, disease, and famine with the purpose of sharing God's love. In the United States, it mobilizes staff, equipment and volunteers to provide emergency aid to victims and often stays behind after their initial response to rebuild or restore houses for needy families.

Tithe for January 14, 2024 - St. Francis Center on St. Helena Island, SC

SSCM.org/ministries/St-Francis-Center-on-St-Helena-Island-SC

The St. Francis Center on St. Helena Island, SC is a sponsored ministry of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius. They serve the under-served and persons with disabilities, particularly the elderly poor, by partnering with donors, area churches, foundations, and agencies to provide food, clothing, home repairs, assistance with utility and prescription payments, and access to education. The sisters also offer spiritual support and prayer to the Center's clients, volunteers, partners, and those seeking refuge in the Lord and the solace of their beautiful location.

"As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God" - 1 Peter 4:10

Leave a Legacy of Faith - You can provide for the future well-being of Frassati Catholic Church by including the parish in your will and/or estate plan. By making this gift, you are helping to ensure the Church continues to play an integral role in the lives of others, thereby guaranteeing the faith and all its blessings will be passed to future generations. Please contact the church office at (843) 306-3025 or send an email to FrassatiCC@gmail.com for the form or more information.
