Young Adult Pilgrimage Summer 2024: In the Footsteps of Frassati

Journey to the heights that inspired Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, widely known and loved for his magnanimity of spirit, passion for outdoor pursuits, and love for the poor. This pilgrimage across Northern Italy follows (literally) in Pier Giorgio's footsteps, visiting the places he prayed, the houses he lived in, and the mountains he loved so dearly, and his tomb in Turin. The highlight of this pilgrimage is a stay at the Rifugio Frassati, an alpine hut located in the magnificent alps on the Swiss-Italian border. We currently have 13 spots open and they are first come first serve! Email Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org for more information on how you can register for this amazing experience!

2023 Tax Statements - With the current IRS tax code, many people will no longer be able to itemize charitable contributions for tax purposes. Due to a change in our Church Management Software all 2023 Year End Contribution statements (over $250) have been sent to the email address that is on file with Frassati Catholic Church. If you did not receive a statement via email and require one, please email FrassatiCC@gmail.com.

Thank you all for your generous support of the parish.

Pier (PEE-air)
Giorgio (GEORGE-o)
Frassati (Fra-SAH-tee)

EXCERPTS FROM LA CARITÀ,

EDITED BY LUCIANA FRASSATI

Not all [of Pier Giorgio's] friends and companions treated him as his goodness deserved. Rather, for the most part their behavior towards him was what his goodness justified: so jokes, pricks, teases and not always superficial or overly kind. But he never got angry; he was accustomed to joking and responding blow for blow even if with much less tendentiousness and satisfaction, [for] he always knew how to find the favorable side of the joke, to respond politely and without bitterness. And then Father Borla saw him coming in front of him with his open and sincere smile; he heard him offer him as a friendly greeting, "Listen, Father Borla, let us go torment Bertini!" All of this was his mischievousness, a true charity for whoever who knew him.

Frassati Challenge: Practice good self-deprecating humor. Joke about one of your shortcomings with another person.

DISCIPLESHIP & FAITH FORMATION 05

Pier Giorgio Frassati Catholic Church | Myrtle Beach, SC

We do Faith Formation differently at Frassati Catholic Church. Our goal is to help you respond to the call to be a disciple of Jesus - someone who surrenders to Christ and seeks to live his or her life imitating Him.

Family Discipleship. Consider joining us on Sunday mornings at 9:15 am for Family Discipleship. Please check the online calendar or contact Jeff Vehige for more information: JVehige@charlestondiocese.org.

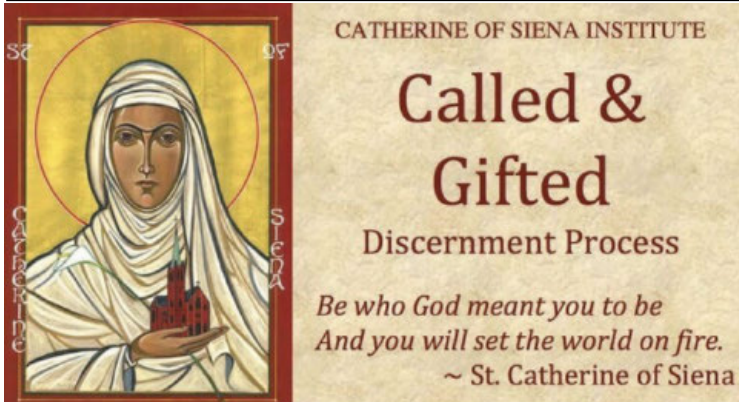

Discipleship Challenge: The New Year is upon us. To see changes, you have to make changes. If there's a relationship that you want to improve or a habit you want to develop, lamenting the current situation can help identify the need for change, but without action, the current situation will remain. If spring cleaning seems daunting, start by organizing one drawer. If someone close to you has made poor decisions, start by saying, "I've noticed that...". If exercise is a struggle, start with a short walk in the warm sunshine. And if you feel disconnected from God, start by lifting your heart to Him.

In fact, this year, challenge yourself to take up one — and only one — spiritual practice you can do every single day without fail. It might be saying an Our Father and Hail Mary when you wake up. It might be praying a decade of the Rosary. It might be reading one chapter from the Bible. But promise the Lord you will do something to know him better and love him more.

Frassati's CREW Youth Group: Registration for Youth Group is now open for all middle school and high school teens. Registration is free and online. Scan the QR code or visit our website to register. Contact Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org with any questions.

Young Adult Catholics of the Myrtle Beach Area: Are you a young adult between the ages of 18 and 35 in the Myrtle Beach area? We now have an area-wide young adult ministry. Whether you are registered to a specific parish or not, we invite you to join us and connect with other young adult Catholics in the area. Contact Katie Kline at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org for more information on events and how to join our GroupMe.

In May 2023, Gov. Henry McMaster signed the Education Scholarship Trust Fund Act (ESTF) into law. This program provides scholarships that cover the costs of the education, including private school tuition and fees, homeschool programs, textbooks and supplies, tutors, and many other services and tools approved by the South Carolina Department of Education.

Accepted applicants will be awarded up to $6,000 per child for approved uses. This program provides parents with more freedom to choose the best options for how their children will be educated. It will assist lower income families with school expenses and can be utilized for Catholic school tuition.

We are called as Catholics to make a quality, truth-centered education available in our communities. ESTFs give families in our state a unique opportunity to access education that brings children to a better knowledge of God and the world around us.

Applications are open now and through March 15th. Only 5,000 applications will be funded this first year (and will increase in successive years).

Holy Trinity Catholic School, 1100 8th Avenue, North Myrtle Beach, is holding an open house with light refreshments at 11 am on Sunday, January 28th. We tithe as a Parish!

This means we give 10% of our weekly offertory away. We "pay it forward" to sacrifice and inspire those who have not taken that personal step in their journey of faith. It also simplifies our liturgies by avoiding weekly second collections. Half of our weekly tithe is used for Friends of Frassati and half goes to Diocesan or Parish chosen causes. For our FAQs about tithing and to learn how to recommend a recipient go to the "Giving" tab at www.FrassatiChurch.org or contact Sally Markus at SMarkus@CharlestonDiocese.org.

Tithe for January 21, 2024 – Grand Strand Miracle League Inc. GrandStrandMiracleLeague.com

The Grand Strand Miracle League's mission is to construct, operate, and manage a baseball complex for children who are physically and/or mentally challenged. It began with a simple thought: that parents of kids with disabilities should have the same opportunities to create treasured memories with their children as parents of typical kids. We all imagine a long, exciting list of things we'll do as we raise our kids, and many parents' dreams for their children are built around activities like dancing, music recitals, team sports and first trophies. When we learn that our child has a disability, those dreams don't have to be surrendered.

Tithe for January 28, 2024 – Church in Latin America CharlestonDiocese.org

The Collection for the Church in Latin America supports pastoral programs throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. The programs that are aided by your support include the work of evangelization, formation of laity, religious and seminarians, as well as youth ministry and catechesis.

"As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God" - 1 Peter 4:10

Leave a Legacy of Faith - You can provide for the future well-being of Frassati Catholic Church by including the parish in your will and/or estate plan. By making this gift, you are helping to ensure the Church continues to play an integral role in the lives of others, thereby guaranteeing the faith and all its blessings will be passed to future generations. Please contact the church office at (843) 306-3025 or send an email to FrassatiCC@gmail.com for the form or more information.

We are in need of volunteers to serve as liturgical ministers. If you're interested in serving at Mass (especially on Sunday at 5 pm) in any of the liturgical ministries (Altar Server, Lector, Extraordinary Eucharistic Minister or Rosary Leader), please email Deacon Jim at JHinnerschitz@CharlestonDiocese.org.
