FRASSATI SPOTLIGHT— ALTAR LINENS

We want to thank everyone who helped sew the beautiful new altar linens with the Frassati logo on them! We did a purge on the old ones to make room. Next, we plan to take a few sets with mountain designs back to the Frassati Villa for the priests to use during Mass this summer. Wanda & Giovanna Gawronska, two of PGF's nieces, are very grateful for your help. A special thanks to Joyce Amoroso for cleaning our altar linens on a weekly basis.

Social Communications Survey Results

A special thanks to all 162 responders (20% of households) to our google survey form.

Bulletin Data: Of the responders, 98% read it and 1 in 5 read it online. National studies suggest that the bulletin is the least effective way to reach disengaged Catholics. 77% of responders typically find the information they need in it. Announcements and Upcoming Events dominated what was "most important" to them overall. Info about our patron ranked at 31% for "most important" and 38% for "least important" suggesting an interesting cross-section between parishioners when it comes to their desire to learn more about Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. Two in three know what a QR code is and find them helpful at least some time.

Improvements coming down the pipeline: more structure and conciseness, less clutter, clearer ministry needs and objectives, updates on the building of the parish campus, a preview of the upcoming week events on the front page, better picture resolution, increased font size, less diocesan announcements. There were a good number of responders requesting less repetition. Although we are fine-tuning the parameters for the timing of announcements, we will not likely satisfy the request for "less repetition" because the reality is that most people are less engaged than our responders. Many people travel, don't come on a weekly basis, or do not utilize all forms of social communications which necessitates repetition. Note: The parish distributes 525-550 bulletins a week. Moreover, printing the bulletin costs the parish nothing, and we are permitted seven pages given the publishing company sells advertisements.

Social Media Data: Of the responders, 50% follow the parish online. National studies suggest that beyond personal invitations, social media is the way to best engage the disengaged. Hence, one of the reasons a new initiative between our parish and FrassatiUSA has begun to create a new social media community to invite Frassati-lovers in the English speaking world to share in our parish's mission and vision. In the next couple months, we will be closing the Catholic Community at Carolina Forest (Facebook group page) and solely utilizing the official Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati Catholic Church Facebook and Instagram pages for building awareness of and celebrating parish related activities.

Overall: People acknowledged how they love to hear fellow parishioners "sharing a grace" talk about how God is working in their lives at Frassati at the conclusion of Mass. It's important for all to understand that the big vision we have as a community includes turning the parish one day into a shrine with a museum dedicated to our patron.

Get Involved & Step Up

At Frassati Catholic Church we recognize that everyone is at different stages of their climb "towards heaven - verso l'alto." As a family, we encounter each person where they are and provide them with opportunities to live, grow, and share in the "good adventure". We challenge you to be a greater part of the family by participating or serving in at least one of our ministries (Outreach, Social, Liturgical, or Faith Formation).

Friends of Frassati

Friends of Frassati is all our "non-liturgical" parish ministries that are social or outreach oriented. Each of the ministries seeks to follow in the footsteps of our patron Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati who became the "man of the beatitudes" through friendship, prayer, and action - living the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

Discipleship & Faith Formation

Upcoming Discipleship Class — The Resurrection of Jesus

This Easter Season, dive into the greatest truth of the Christian faith: the resurrection of Jesus. St Paul said that “if Christ had not been raised, our faith is in vain” and that “Christians are the most miserable of people.” What precisely happened on Easter Sunday? What did the early Christians mean when they said that Jesus of Nazareth had been raised from the dead? What can be said today about this belief? Join Jeff Vehige on April 15, 22, and 29 as he dives deep into the Resurrection of Jesus. Dinner at 6 pm, with the presentation beginning at 6:40 pm. To sign up, contact Katie at KKline@CharlestonDiocese.org.

Moving Forward

The building committee is working with Santee Cooper Electric to install a street light at the corner of Silvercrest Drive and the power station for the entire development of the Frassati Parish/Seton School campus.

The diocese hired Maynard Nexsen to help finalize the Horry County drainage easement and 7.75 acres property deal for Frassati Parish. The former has been submitted to Horry County.

New sidewalks to the side entranceways to Seton School were installed. Special thanks to the De Los Santos family for providing free labor on the sidewalks project.
