FRIENDS OF FRASSATI & OUTREACH

Teresa Vigna recalls: Together we used to visit the lepers in the Hospital of San Lazzaro in Turin. One day we found a young boy around 20 years old with his face marred by leprosy. Pier Giorgio remained impressed by the sight of this young boy with an exuberant body already totally defeated by sickness. "You see," he said, "what an enormous gift it is to be in good health as we are." And a moment later he added. "Also, the deformation of this young boy will disappear when in a few years he will reach Heaven. Therefore, we have the duty of putting our health at the service of those who do not possess it. To act otherwise would be to betray this great gift of God and His benevolence."

Weekly Challenge: Make an act of gratitude for the health that you have in the moment.
