FRIENDS OF FRASSATI & OUTREACH

One day in the office of the Popular Party, a young man showed up asking for Pier Giorgio. Right at that moment he was phoning the headquarters and so Lea Raiteri was able to inform him immediately of the visit. He immediately understood who it was and, quite calmly, replied: Please give twenty-five lire to that man. "As soon as I come, I'll give them back to you."

A little amazed, Lea Raiteri fulfilled the entreaty that Pier Giorgio had addressed to her, but it was enough for her to see the way in which the poor young man accepted that money to understand how there was an bygone understanding between Pier Giorgio and him, an agreement that far exceeded the understanding of any intermediary. SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY - JUNE 4

A blessed Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity! This solemnity is celebrated a week after Pentecost to honor one of the most fundamental of Christian beliefs — the Holy Trinity.

"The whole divine economy is the common work of the three divine persons. For as the Trinity has only one and the same natures so too does it have only one and the same operation: 'The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are not three principles of creation but one principle.'" (Catechism #258)

FRASSATI SPOTLIGHT

Altar Servers

Thank you to all altar servers who graciously arrive early, stay late, and arrange their weekend schedules to serve at Mass. Our parish has altar servers (adults, boys and girls) who are able to start after their First Communion. Serving at the altar teaches children to develop a love and commitment to the Holy Mass. We strongly encourage all who have received Confirmation to learn how to altar serve. In fact, anyone who has a devotion to the Mass is welcome, and those who desire to serve are encouraged to do so. All that is required is a desire to serve at the altar of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To become an altar server, please contact our head server, Paul Vehige, at paulvehige08@gmail.com. We plan to have a few training sessions this summer.

Registered Households: 710

Budgeted Weekly Expenses: $10,125 (based on Annual Report released 9/16/2022)

Dear Catholic School Parents:

I want to commend you for your efforts to reinforce what you teach your child(ren) at home by providing them with a formal Catholic education. I know from personal experience that it often comes at a great financial sacrifice. My parents put my four older sisters, my two younger brothers, and me through Catholic schools, K-12. When I was in high school, my mother got recertified as a nurse to pay back Msgr. Rowland when he generously picked up my tuition bill at Cardinal Newman High School. That, in itself, was an education for me of faith and love by both my parish priest and parents. Remember, your efforts to instill the faith can never be replaced by a Catholic school or parish experience without grave consequences. You are the primary educators of your children. The apple generally does not fall far from the tree.

To be a good steward of the parish's financial resources, it's important that I be able to verify your active participation in the life of our parish.

How do we define active participation at Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati Catholic Church?

1. Officially registered in the parish
2. Faithful attendance to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days at our parish unless traveling; if, for your livelihood, you must work on Saturday evening and Sunday and cannot attend one of our 4 Masses, then I can discuss granting you a dispensation to attend a weekday Mass instead.
3. Financially contributing to the parish – the biblical principle is to tithe (give at least 10%) of your income to charities (usually half to your parish and the other half to your choosing). If this is difficult or impossible because of significant debt beyond a mortgage, then start by counting your Catholic school tuition towards the 10%. Giving by check, envelope, or online $10 weekly (less than what a fast-food meal costs today) is a good place to start, if you haven't.
4. Participation in a ministry (liturgical, social, etc.), helping with various parish events, or providing some other service makes our elderly smile and our community more vibrant.

Verso l'alto – Towards the heights!
