What is Ordinary Time?:

Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.

Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

FRIENDS OF FRASSATI & OUTREACH

There was a trip planned, and our mother gave Pier Giorgio the money for the trip. Often more than necessary, sometimes just that [which was needed]. Invariably, then, his great battle began. From the moment he put the money in his pocket, until he returned home, dead tired but cheerful and satisfied, he persisted in mentally organizing his expenses so that they left over money for his poor.

However, my mother never managed to get the receipts from him: there was always something wrong and the sums didn't add up. And there wasn't a trip that didn't find him absolutely penniless in the end: either he had paid for someone's train ticket or a meal or a stay at a hotel. In short, his money belonged to everyone and the greatest proof came when he left for a trip to Germany with a decent sum, including occasional and budgeted alms, he returned home without even a lira: indeed, with only a lira. (Excerpt from La Carita, edited by Luciana Frassati; P. 58)

Weekly Challenge: Read and pray with Matthew 19:16-30, the story of Jesus and the rich young man. What weights in your life are holding you back from giving so freely as Pier Giorgio?

FRASSATI SPOTLIGHT

Community Corpus Christi Procession 2023

Sunday June 11th was a beautiful day of unity as churches came together for the Eucharist. The Eucharist, source and summit of our Christian lives, was carried through the streets of Conway in solemn procession demonstrating public witness of our faith and devotion towards the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. The joy filled experience was created by a joyful community to make this day an extraordinary holy and prayer filled experience. Over 500 hearts were filled with the presence of our Lord. This solemn Corpus Christi procession is not a walking toward the Lord, it is a walking with the Lord.

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE
OF CHARLESTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

My dear brothers in Christ,

I thank you for dedicating your lives to care for, protect and provide for your families. I would like to take this opportunity to encourage you and to assure you of my continued prayers for you.

You have been blessed with the gift of fatherhood and have inherited a high calling: to imitate our Father in heaven. Especially in our time, the importance of fatherhood is downplayed or assumed to be unnecessary. But we learned through and from Jesus that a father has the vital responsibility of guiding his children in right paths — God chose Joseph to be Jesus' father.

We read in the book of Proverbs, "Train the young in the way they should go; even when old, they will not swerve from it" (22:6). A good father leads his family in prayer, embodying a life of unwavering service, so that his family might be inspired to do the same for others. Fatherhood is a sacred duty that transcends just providing for the physical needs of children. More importantly, a father must raise up great saints whose lives bring glory and joy to our Father in heaven and peace to their neighbors.

Dear fathers, I urge you to instill in your children the tenets of our faith. Build your house on the rock of truth, so that your family is safe and unshakable. Like St. Joseph, you must guide your family through the desert of temptations the world offers and take responsibility for your children's education. Making dialogue an important activity in the life of your family will help reduce violence in our society.

May you find joy and fulfillment in this sacred calling that God has given you. Remember that you are not alone on this journey. The Church, your family in faith, is here to support and encourage you. May you continue to be a shining example of God's love and compassion, and may your families be blessed by your presence and strength. I pray that you will be nourished in your faith and always strive to imitate our heavenly Father in all that you do.

With gratitude and admiration, I wish all fathers a blessed Father's Day!

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jenne, CS
Bishop of Charleston
